

CELEBRATING THIRTY YEARS OF THE CANTERBURY UNESCO WORLD HERITAGE SITE

23rd - 25th May 2019

Conference Programme

canterbury.ac.uk/unesco-conference

Thursday 23rd May 2019 – St Augustine's Feast Day

5.30 – 6.45 Service for St Augustine's Feast Day starting at 5.30 at St Martin's Church, then processing to the Abbey and ending at 6.45 with refreshments in the Chapter House, everyone is welcome to attend.

Friday 24th May 2019 – UNESCO and World Heritage

10.30 – 11.00 Arrivals

11.00 – 11.10 Welcome

11.10 – 11.40 Chris Blandford, President of World Heritage UK, 'World Heritage' – well known words but what does it mean in the UK?'

11.40 – 12.10 Dr Sophie Vigneron, Kent Law School, Kent University, 'Legal and policy protection of World Heritage Properties: international, national or local concern?'

12.10 – 12.20 Break

12.20 – 12.50 Jonathan Truillet, Heritage Director for the Grand Est region, 'The challenges of the management of the Reims buildings inscribed on the World Heritage list: protect, restore, publicize'.

12.50 – 2.00 Lunch

2.00 – 2.30 Professor Robert Bubczyk, Head of the Department of History of Culture, Maria Curie-Skłodowska University, Lublin, 'UNESCO World Heritage Sites in Poland – between the protection of cultural Heritage and its commercialization. A case study of the 'Wieliczka' Royal Salt Mine and Castle of the Teutonic Order in Malbork'

2.30 – 3.00 Jane Gibson, Durham World Heritage Site Co-ordinator, 'Pilgrimage, Journeying and Travel - Durham World Heritage Site, welcoming pilgrims for over 1,000 years. Balancing the interests of our many visitors and other stakeholders'.

3.00 – 3.10 Break

3.10 – 3.40 Cressida Williams, Head of Archives and Library, Canterbury Cathedral, 'Protecting written Heritage: the UNESCO Memory of the World programme'.

3.40 – 4.10 Tea

4.10 – 4.40 Neil McCollum, Head of Historic Properties Kent English Heritage, 'Engaging visitors within the Canterbury World Heritage Site – exploring ways to deliver an authentic visitor experience'.

4.40 – 5.10 Howard Griffin, Kent School of Architecture, Kent University, and Dr Jane Lovell, Department of Geographical and Life Sciences CCCU, 'The Illuminated past: using light installations to interpret World Heritage Sites'.

6.00 Reception in the Daphne Oram Creative Arts Building

9.15 Light Show at St Augustine's Abbey

Saturday 25th May 2019 – Canterbury's World Heritage Site

10.00 – 10.30 Dr Charles Insley, Head of the Department of History, Manchester University, 'Canterbury Cathedral, St Augustine's Abbey and St Martin's Church: An Anglo-Saxon sacred cityscape?'

10.30 – 11.00 Jake Weekes, Research Manager, Canterbury Archaeological Trust, 'Canterbury's Heritage in the 21st Century'

11.00 – 11.30 Coffee

11.30 – 12.00 Dr Charlotte Young, 'A pilgrimage to plunder: sequestration in Canterbury, 1643-1649'

12.00 – 12.30 Professor Jackie Eales, Centre for Kent History and Heritage, CCCU, 'A Civil War Royalist in exile: Sir John Finch's memorial in St Martin's Church'.

12.30 – 1.30 Lunch

1.30 – 2.00 Professor Peter Vujakovic, School of Human and Life Sciences, CCCU, 'Journey's end: linking the global to local through biodiversity in the Canterbury UNESCO World Heritage Site'

2.00 – 2.30 Dr Ralph Norman, School of Humanities, CCCU, 'Gothic Evolution: Alexander James Hope, William Butterfield, and St Augustine's Missionary College'

2.30 – 2.40 Break

2.40 – 3.10 Heather Newton, Head of Conservation, and Sarah Turner, Collections Manager, Canterbury Cathedral, 'The Canterbury Journey – marking meaning and a sense of place'

3.10 – 3.40 Dr Diane Heath, Centre for Kent History and Heritage, CCCU, 'Celebrating Canterbury's world class Romanesque Heritage: the wonderful creatures carved in crypt and cloister'

3.40 – 4.10 Tea

4.10 – 4.40 Mike Butler, St Martin's Church, 'Rapporteur'

All talks will take place in Canterbury Christ Church University, The Old Sessions House, Longport, Canterbury CT1 1PL. For further information please contact jackie.eales@canterbury.ac.uk

