

Sadly, there are now only 8 WEA centres in Kent and some of them are struggling to keep going. Please publish the courses if you can.

ASHFORD — only 'Music Appreciation' starting 27/09/17

CANTERBURY — 2 History courses this term: 'Kentish Churches to the Reformation', starting 19/09/17 and 'Monarchy and People in England 1066-1307', starting 20/09/17

HERNE BAY — 'Literature: True Fiction or False History', starting 21/09/17 and 'Music and Revolutions: 1789-1918', starting 29/09/17

SWALE — 'History: England 1815-1870', starting 19/09/17 and 'Music Appreciation: Haydn, the Man and the Musician', starting 25/09/17

TENTERDEN — has a course on German Modernism and 2 Day schools: one on Literature and one on using the computer

TONBRIDGE and SEVENOAKS — 'History: More Historical Journeys through England' which starts on 26/09/17 at 2 different venues and 2 different times

TUNBRIDGE WELLS— a Day School on 'Art Appreciation: British Satirical Prints from 1720 to 1830', on 23/09/17, and another '19th century Russian Art' on 25/11/17. There is also a History Day School: 'The Four Romanov Grand Duchesses' on 21/10/17

WHITSTABLE — 'Novels of the 1920s—The Jazz Age', starting 20/09/17

In the London area BECKENHAM and WEST WICKHAM have the usual London History Walks starting on 21/09/17

BROMLEY — 2 History courses: 'The Victorians', starting 20/09/17 and 'Hanoverian Consorts', starting 21/09/17

PETTS WOOD and ORPINGTON — have several History courses: 'British History: King, Parliament and the Civil War', starting 18/09/17; 'World History: China—The road to the People's Republic', starting 18/09/17; 'British History: The Hanoverian Consorts', starting 21/09/17 and 2 Saturday events: 'Saturday Lecture : The Romanov Sisters', on 04/11/17 and 'The Birth of Modern Science' on 02/12/17

There are also courses at Canterbury Christ Church University. See <https://www.canterbury.ac.uk/arts-and-culture/word/word.aspx>