

School of History, University of Kent, Kent History Federation Report

- Appointment of new Vice Chancellor – Professor Karen Cox
- Shuffle around in the History office
 - Appointment of Kate Morgan as Administrative Support
 - Appointment of Eloise Bates as Student Support Officer
- Publication of books by
 - Mark Lawrence (The Spanish Civil Wars: A Comparative History of the First Carlist War and the Conflict of the 1930s (Bloomsbury))
 - Karen Jones (Epiphany in the Wilderness: Hunting, Nature, and Performance in the Nineteenth-Century American West (University Press of Colorado))
 - Giacomo Macola (The Gun in Central Africa: A History of Technology and Politics (Ohio University Press))
 - Will Butler (The Irish Amateur Military Tradition in the British Army, 1854-1992 (Manchester University Press))
 - Juliette Pattinson (Co-authored – Men in Reserve: Masculinities in the Second World War (Manchester University Press))
- A number of recently passed PhD vivas
 - Charlie Hall
 - Jack Davies
 - Aske Brocke
 - James Farley
- Appointment of Kenneth Fincham to Vice-President of the Royal Historical Society
- Grant Success for Rebekah Higgitt – ‘Metropolitan Science: Places, Objects and Cultures of Practice and Knowledge in London, 1600-1800’ (Leverhulme, approx.. £370,000)

This report was prepared by Dr Ben Marsh, Senior Lecturer in the School of History in the University of Kent. Ben invites anyone to follow up by email with him if there are any areas of interest or queries or questions. His email address is B.J.Marsh@kent.ac.uk