

BRITISH ASSOCIATION FOR LOCAL HISTORY REPORT

by Sue Lavender

3 June 2019

BALH representatives attended Family Tree Live at the Alexandra Palace on 25 to 26 April and made 15 new members. The BALH website was relaunched at Local History Day on 1st June and all are invited to look at this website for future events and activities www.balh.org.uk. Local history societies which are members of BALH (which includes most in Kent) will be invited to send in details of their events and programmes for the website too, so it will be a good place to publicise themselves. Please let the web manager know of any details you would like put up immediately by emailing webmanager@balh.org.uk.
